Indiana Pacer's President Jim Morris Visits the Correctional Industrial Facility (CIF) in Pendleton

Pendleton, Indiana – (November 1, 2010) – On Sunday, October 31, 2010 at 6:30pm Jim Morris, President of the Pacer's Organization attended the Correctional Industrial Facility (CIF) "Fifth Sunday Chaplain's Choice." Jim is a retired Lilly Executive and served a term as United Nations World Food Bank Executive Director in Geneva, Switzerland.

Jim Morris addresses offenders at CIF.

He briefly talked about the Pacers being in first place with two wins and one loss and Larry Bird and his commitment to the Indiana Pacers. However, his main topic and obvious passion was helping others and especially the starving children in the world.

There were approximately 50 offenders who attended the event in the chapel, several volunteers, Dr. Steve Hall, Chaplain Alan McCraine and Assistant Superintendent Tim Purcell. Also attending CIF's special service was Earle Goode, Chief of Staff to Governor Mitch Daniels. "CIF was pleased to have special guests at our event last night in the Chapel," commented Superintendent Donna R. Carneygee.
